OUR PROCESS

Every day, millions of users share their daily activity through a number of social media platforms. We analyze this data to identify and contact people that have been in accidents and may be in need of consultation. If they need to be evaluated by a doctor, we direct them to one in our referral network.

Through enhanced techniques using data analytic software, we utilize social media platforms to:

- analyze users' updates & tweets
- filter relevant information
- identify high value prospects
